CITY ATTORNEY SPEAKS AT CALIFORNIA PUBLIC FINANCE CONFERENCE

Aguirre, a former federal securities prosecutor and private attorney with 25 years' experience in the field, will be on a panel entitled "In the Shadow of San Diego: New Standards for Disclosure."

The ongoing investigations of the City of San Diego disclosure practices will be the backdrop for his discussion and legal analysis of the due diligence standards that public officials and counsel should meet, particularly regarding pension fund matters.

City Attorney Aguirre will be joined on the panel by John McNally, partner in Hawkins Delafield & Wood, the City of San Diego's general disclosure counsel.

The three-day Conference is attended by senior-level municipal market participants. It is sponsored by the Bond Buyer, a daily newspaper that serves the municipal industry.
